I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: Regarding Occupy Oakland

Mayor Quan,

As a daughter of a retired Naval Officer, niece of a retired Marine, a former Alameda resident, and as a US citizen, I am deeply concerned by the events occurring in Oakland and the lack of leadership on your part to address the behavior of the Oakland Police Department.

Your recent comments and praise for "peacefully" removing citizens, for whom it is your job to protect, is disgraceful. Comments that will be remembered by the world, and most importantly by a family who now preys for their sons recovery, a veteran Marine, who served to protect you in wars over seas. A man who was participating in peaceful non-violent protest and participating in a democracy that he served to protect.

All, I can say is shame. Shame on you. I think Oakland and this man deserves a public apology from his Mayor.

As a resident of Oakland, I had expected better of you, Mayor Quan. As a veteran of the International Hotel struggle, I thought you understood the importance of standing up to power when it is unfairly imposed for the profit of the few against the basic survival rights of the many. I also thought you would understand the importance of public officials taking a stand and refusing to enforce unjust laws.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,
Oakland Police Department's response to protestors last night was brutal, absurd and unconscionable. The whole world is watching. This police violence must stop now.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Why on Earth would you be thanking police officers for shooting protesters in the face with projectiles? And in whose world is that considered "peaceful"?

http://oaklandnorth.net/2011/10/25/mayor-quan-issues-statement-about-occupy-oakland-raid/

"We want to thank the police, fire, public works and other employees who worked over the last week to peacefully close the encampment."

What's so peaceful about tear gas, rubber bullets and concussion grenades?

I don't condone the trouble makers who threw things at the police but the response was less than peaceful and the protesters have a right be there expressing their concerns about the growing threat against our democracy with a class war against the poor and middle class. There was no reason to evict them. If someone is breaking the law then fine or arrest them but please do not physically attack them.

there is absolutely NO REASON for this level of violence to be launched by a city government toward an unarmed mass of people that includes women, veterans, and children. If this truly was a public health hazard, the city should have either provided porta-pottas and trash service to the area, demonstrating support for the peaceful protest, OR the city should have very least addressed the gathering via loudspeaker and provided 48 hour notice to evacuate before storming. This is NOT a military state.

The violence that occurred last night was unacceptable. I would think that after the recent string of police brutality, they would have had the good sense to use force only when necessary. Firing tear gas canisters at people trying to help a victim injured BY POLICE is absolutely positively UNACCEPTABLE. Not in Oakland, not anywhere.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Remy Cashman

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I am a property owner and pay property taxes in Oakland. Up till now, I was proud of the city response to Occupy Oakland. I taught and lived in Oakland for 34 years. On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park.
That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest, which makes me proud. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors. Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Peaceful?

If you think the way the Oakland police handled last night's events is peaceful, then I would like to invite you to offer up your sick grandmother to be at the receiving end of such peace.

Your days are numbered in office, my friend.

This is 2011. And the people are rising.

Pretty soon, even the cops will balk at the orders to be "peaceful" when they are looking in the eyes of innocents, pelting them with rubber bullets, throwing "safe" grenades and tear gas on a crowd of a peaceful assembly. Just you wait.

The first amendment does not say "between the hours of 9-5." It says it is unlawful to refuse the right of "peaceful assembly." Which is what the Occupiers are doing. The law was broken last night, but not by the protesters. By whoever told those cops to do what they did.

Looks like you in your ivory houses are getting scared of the power of the people.

More to come,
I am employed. I have insurance. I make a good living.
But I believe we are all one and no one deserves more than anyone else.

This is not going away. The people are not going away.
But it looks like your position as mayor might.

Mayor Quan and members of the Oakland City Council

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Your absurd reasoning for dispersing, teargassing, and beanbag shooting the citizens of the East Bay is appalling.
I hope our police never get their jollys by mistreating American citizens as you gave your police permission to do.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I'm signing because every American has a constitutional right to protest...When compared to the other Occupy Wall Street movements across the world, Oakland comes off as a repressive police state that physically assaults their citizens while denying them their constitutional rights!

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Jack Malchow

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I'm signing because I'm not going to stand by and watch these police officers act just the way the Nazi's acted. They're "following orders" even though those orders may be morally incorrect. I do NOT appreciate them BOMBING an OLD LADY in a WHEELCHAIR. NOR do i appreciate them bombing an IRAQ VETERAN! and then bombing all those coming to HELP him.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Linda Jones

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

The right of protest movements to occupy prominent public spaces 24/7 is critical to freedom and democracy, and must not be infringed.

This is how the Egyptian people recently brought down a dictator. It has happened in many other countries as well.

The fact that in multiple cities, local government officials -- mostly Democrats -- are sending their police to violently crack down on peaceful Occupy protests, shows that neither establishment cartel party can be trusted to uphold civil liberties.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Carol Brown

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

We have the right of peaceful assembly in this country - or do our Constitutional rights only apply when our views agree with those in power? The actions of Oakland's government and police force are worthy of a 3rd wold dictatorship, not a free democracy...

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protesters.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protesters.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I am appalled and afraid of the action that the police force that culminated on Tuesday, October 25th when you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps. You allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. Although I know the police report that they took necessary action because they felt threatened, the action was far beyond what was appropriate and hurt large numbers of people who were peaceful and working toward economic solutions. The actions taken by the police, the use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. I was proud of the city just a little more than a week ago when it appeared that Oakland stood out among others as a place that helped facilitate peaceful solutions through Occupy. I was horrified to learn over the past couple of days that the city now stands out as one of the most oppressive in its response. The city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors. Your approach only made matters worse.

Down at City Hall tonight. It's a peaceful demonstration of around 2,000 people. Quite a mix of people, beatniks, professionals, parents with kids, artists, homeless. People of Oakland.

Tonight's message seems to be as one sign says, "Protesting Wall Street. Not Rioting in the Streets." The speakers are asking the Mayor and the Chief to come talk to them.

No police presence so far. Just massive amounts of media.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: Shame

You wanted Oakland to be well known. You accomplished that in a matter of hours and the story is breaking around the world. How the Oakland Police beat and harmed Oakland residents. Shame. It's always the same in Oakland--the police move in and start the violence. Yes, the place was a mess, rats may have been running through their camps, but it was the people speaking for justice. You denied them that opportunity by allowing the police to get close enough that the cops could then turn the place far more violent than it ever was without them. That's the message, and it sure hurt Oakland. A real leader would have told the police to stay back and do nothing unless you gave the order. A real leader would have been among those people on the Plaza talking to them and reassuring them that they could speak their minds in Oakland. Now you have a recall effort as your reward. Make it right. Welcome them back. Hold the police at a distance. I, and many folks around here, are disgusted by this. Oakland--first on CNN this morning, and it was all bad.

Dear Jean:

I hope that you will allow the Occupy Oakland people to remain in their camp. This is a supreme example of the Free Speech amendment, and to close it down over garbage or regulations flies in the face of the real American values. Yes, if they get violent, move them out. But do not allow Oakland police to incite violence by forcing out what are generally peaceful people. If you can't do this, then you are out, simply because you will no longer represent a segment of our city's population. We need this kind of protest, even if we don't agree, because this IS America.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Gail Van

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

THE WHOLE WORLD IS WATCHING. THIS IS GETTING INTERNATIONAL NEWS COVERAGE.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

IF YOU ARE SERIOUS ABOUT PROTECTING OUR BELOVED CITY, IT IS ESSENTIAL FOR YOU TO CEASE ALL ESCALATING TACTICS.

WE AS LAW ABIDING CITIZENS NEED YOU TO SHOW PEACEFUL AND COURAGEOUS LEADERSHIP.

WE KNOW THAT YOU ARE CAPABLE MAYOR QUAN.

Sincerely,

Astraea Bella Davidson

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Since there have been so many layoffs (see way below) don't count on anyone but us residents to clean up these messes. There could be clues in this trash (such as addresses of homeowners on paper within the trash) that one could use to find out who is responsible for this mess. It needs to be cleaned up immediately as otherwise there will be even more trash in the same area. We know this because my husband and I maintain a "traffic triangle" (sunset bench and table) up the street from our house (coucilman-at-the-time Dick Spees-approved). Graffiti and trash needed to be cleaned up almost daily, but it is much better now since we get on it immediately.

My husband likens Oakland now to the Depression days when he grew up in Montclair (before it was called Montclair). No City services, and everyone watched out for each other. Furthermore, everyone kept a pistol (or at least a club) by the front door. Video surveillance and monitored alarms are nice, but the Oakland police will not respond to any of these. Smith&Wesson makes the best security system nowadays for Montclair residents. That is our new reality, and my husband and I were born and raised in Oakland.

Bennett, thanks for the information below. I'll report (see picture attached) as soon as the Oakland PW server is not overloaded.

To all, a dump truck worth of garbage and junk was dumped at the entrance to the Shepherd Canyon park on Escher. If anyone has any information regarding who did this please let Public Works know. The fine should be way more than $1000.

Subject: [MDisc] solution: Re: [msic] Illegal dumping of trash on City property (Mountain Blvd)

Barry:

Per the well publicized theory of 'Broken Window" allowing graffiti, illegal dumping and blight can well lead to more serious problems

I have recent experience with this exact problem so I am sharing our operating data on how to solve this. I hope that it is useful.

We just relocated our custom framing company to the 'wilds of East Oakland' from San Francisco, off 98th, we know illegal dumping all to well. I have counted as many as 15 mattresses driving the street to our new offices which does not provide the best "first impression". However, we have found that WORKING WITH the various City departments has been effective on many issues including dumping specifically, blight, crime mitigation, response to crime events, lighting, cameras, etc.

We have also had TWO major illegal drops (truck loads) nearly at our doorstep in the last two weeks. EACH time the City came along and cleaned it up. However, you do have to call lit in - as they are not telepathic, and eyes and ears are key to success.

I am certain that if you call the numbers below, they will resolve this in a reasonable amount of time. They will give you a complaint number and send you a confirming email of the work order - and also an automatic email when the condition is corrected

Here is your solution - this is from the operating manual we are developing

Keep in mind that dumping on public property is handled differently that private (blight), often the result of negligent management of foreclosed properties by Banks

1) illegal dumping
(1) call center 615-5566 - you can also do this on line, saving the City $$/Staff time
(2) will come to PU debris if contacted
(3) enforcement operations where shut down 5 weeks ago (as far as I know)
(a) If the responsible party can be identified (mail etc) citations may be possible
(b) unclear what can happen if evidence is provided by citizens
(4) paint - haz mat - this will trigger involvement of the fire dept.
(5) to call in a complaint - you need the best possible address

Response time typically is 3-5 days

5. Blight complaints: private property
a. HOT LINE: blight on property including graffiti -- 238-3381
b. Please provide the closest street address.
d. Blight can be a broken window, tires in a yard, mattress on building, graffiti - up to the curb is the standard protocol
e. they act on the reports and then refer as needed back to DPW
f. clean to the curb is REQUIRED by ordinance-

note: extreme blight may also be a tool that OPD can use to resolve problems such as suspected crack houses, or illegal squatting

Adopt a block

There is also a program called "Adopt a block", where citizens can come together an garner various levels of support from the city related to beautification programs, including landscaping, clean up etc. We are working to execute something like that in our area in partnership with the local NCPS and other NGOs that have stakes in reducing crime and improving the areas in East Oakland that have been most adversely impacted.

regards

Bennett

Dear Ms. Quan and Ms. Schaaf:

Illegal dumping of trash is occurring on Mountain Blvd, between Ascot and Joaquin Miller; especially across from the park entrance on the weed-filled fence. This litter has been piling up for two days. This has the potential to encourage more illegal dumping in this area. This is a growing and rampant problem throughout all parts of Oakland. Since Ms. Quan's budget proposal was approved and it gutted a necessary department. Would either of you please let the community know who we contact, and, who is responsible for Litter Enforcement Programs and litter removal. Who is also responsible for removing the hazardous materials (broken glass and needles) from our city parks?

OAKLAND -- As the fallout of the city's new budget becomes clearer, 56 city employees are headed out the door in the next couple weeks, with unions reporting that the deepest impacts will be seen in the physical maintenance of the city. The number was a slight reduction from last week's estimates, but as many as 12 more employees could be laid off or bumped into lower positions by year's end, Andrea Gourdine, Oakland's director of human resources, said Thursday.

Deeply hit are workers responsible for cleaning up broken bottles and needles from public parks as well as tree-cutters who keep the city streets safe from overgrowth, according to Dwight McElroy, president of the city's largest public employee union, SEIU Local 1021.

The city's long-dwindling Litter Enforcement Program, which enforced illegal dumping laws, is now completely gone, its last two employees sent packing. One of them, Quincey Smith, said the program launched in 2002 with eight officers but was steadily cut ever since then.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

My position is that people have a right to be heard. Protesting against what we believe is tresspassing on our rights is a valid reason to protest peacefully and should be allowed.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

It looked like Kristallnacht, the assault of the Nazis on the Jews.
Because of what happened in Oakland, I will forever be ashamed to be an amerikan.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

We need to strengthen, not suppress the voice of the people. Most residents of Oakland support the protest, so the Mayor is once again supporting the interest of the few over the majority.
If the Mayor was truly concerned about sanitation and safety, she could have improved both at a fraction of the cost of fuel for the helicopter that woke me up at 5 am and let me feel a fraction of the war zone experience that the peaceful protesters had to endure.

I am now in favor of recalling the Mayor.

Cracking down on peaceful protesters is only going to make the situation worse and is likely to lead to more violence. Unless this is the outcome you desire, I suggest you return to the spirit of cooperation that marked the beginning of the protest.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

David Hollier

Yes, Mayor, democracy is messy. And it should be bloodless when people exercise their right to protest. The should have to fear the shock troops coming after them just because they want to show they disagree with government policy.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

We must stand united all across the country to show that we'll no longer put up with this kind of injustice. It doesn't matter if it's a do-nothing Congress that caters only to the rich off the backs of the poor and middle class, or local politicians who try to quiet us through force, your time is up! We must and will be heard in peaceful protests and in the ballot box! A People United Will Never Be Defeated!

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

The protesters are not armed and do not present a threat. This level of violence toward them is absurd. The protesters have a right to free speech and to assemble in order to make their grievances known. These rights are GUARANTEED by the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan,

Given the events of the past two nights in Oakland, it is clear that you're unaware that Oakland is part of the USA and governed by the US Constitution. Please fire the interim Chief of Police, and place someone in that office who will follow our Constitution. Also, as you have overseen the current Chief of Police and are defending his department's actions, it is probably time for you to consider resigning as well.

UNBELIEVABLE that a US Veteran of two tours in Iraq participates in a protest protected by our First Amendment, and is in critical condition due to police brutality today. He fought to help Iraqis create a democratic government, and returns to our democracy to be treated like this, simply for exercising his rights as an American citizen.

I cried when I heard about it.

Subject: "Peaceful" eviction of Occupy Oakland???

Incase you miss the news story about Scott Olsen, who is now on a respirator because of injuries sustained from your so called “peaceful” eviction of protestors, I included a story on it from the Huffington Post. You are a bald face liar, and your Mother should be ashamed she raised you. I pray your political career ends today and that the Olsen family sues your pants. Ordering violence be used against the citizens that elected you is a weak, fascist decision and you will pay for it; God will see you pay for the blood spilled because of your actions.

WASHINGTON -- The Oakland Police Department fired tear gas on Occupy Oakland demonstrators Tuesday night as they marched through downtown, determined to reclaim the camp that officers destroyed that morning. As the marchers zigged and zagged in search of safe ground, authorities bombarded and barricaded the activists into a drawn-out stalemate that resulted in further arrests.
The local police's use of force seriously injured an Occupy activist and Iraq War veteran.

Scott Olsen, 24, remains sedated on a respirator, in stable but critical condition at Oakland’s Highland Hospital after being hit in the head with a police projectile.

Olsen's roommate, Keith Shannon, 24, told The Huffington Post that Olsen is still in the emergency room.

"Right now, he's under sedation," Shannon said. "He walked into the hospital." But soon after his arrival, Shannon said, doctors found that there was swelling in Olsen's brain and put him under. He did not get a chance to talk to his friend. "They are waiting for a neurosurgeon to examine him to see if he needs surgery or not," Shannon said. If he doesn't need an operation, he'll be moved to the intensive care unit.

Activists staged Tuesday night’s march through downtown Oakland in response to a violent police raid on the Occupy Oakland encampment earlier that day, during which officers rained tear gas and rubber bullets on the activists in an effort to clear the camp. Police arrested scores of protesters during the eviction.

When reached at her Wisconsin home, Sandra Olsen, Scott's mother, told HuffPost that her son's condition was serious. "He has a head injury," she said. "They are still trying to figure it out with him. I don't want to tie up the phone line. He's not in the best shape."

According to Shannon, Olsen had been attending Occupy San Francisco events and had answered the call to join Occupy Oakland in solidarity.

"He doesn't agree with the way the banks aren't regulated, the way they drove the economy in the ground. He wants there to be regulation of the banks," Shannon said.

Shannon, 24, says his friend was simply one of the marchers. "He was just hit by a projectile," said Shannon, who did not attend the march but heard about the incident from eyewitnesses. "He wasn't near a police officer when it happened."

Dottie Guy, a veteran of the Iraq War and a friend of Olsen, found out about her friend's injury through Twitter and Facebook. She has maintained an overnight vigil at the hospital. "He always had a smile on his face," she said. "He's really into the movement."

YouTube video of the incident shows Olsen, wearing his Marine jacket without his nametape, being carted through a cloud of tear-gas smoke to the sounds of shrieking activists. In a close up, his forehead appears bruised and bloodied. He stares up at his ad-hoc triage in a daze. When asked, “What's your name?” he can’t answer. Someone screams, "Medic!" Shannon first got to know Olsen serving in Iraq from August 2006 to May 2007, when the two worked tactical communications as part of the Marines' 3rd Battalion. Olsen subsequently served a second tour. "We both came out against the war," Shannon said.

Olsen was never injured during his two tours in Iraq.

UPDATE: 8:55 p.m. -- Sandra Olsen, Scott's mother, told HuffPost that her son remains sedated and still suffers brain swelling. She also reported that the left side of his skull was fractured. Olsen plans to fly to Oakland tomorrow to be at her son's side.

UPDATE: 4:20 p.m. -- New video posted to YouTube suggests that Olsen was hit at close range with a tear-gas canister. After demonstrators rush to Olsen's aid, an Oakland cop waits a few beats before lobbing a second tear-gas canister at the crowd. They are attending to Olsen when the canister explodes, sending smoke everywhere.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Bette Bates

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

The City Clerk advised that on Monday, October 24, 2011, the proponents of the recall measure filed their notice of intention to recall the Mayor.

You have the option of filing with the City Clerk "within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention" an answer to the proponents' statement. The answer must not exceed 200 words. (Elections Code section 11023(a)).

The deadline for filing the answer is Monday, October 31, 2011.

If you choose to file an answer, you also must serve a copy of the answer within seven days after filing of the notice of intention "by personal delivery or by certified mail, on one of the proponents named in the notice of intention." (Elections Code section 11023(b)).

The answer must be signed and shall be accompanied by the printed name and business or residence address of the Mayor. (Elections Code section 11023).

The proponents' statement and the answer by the officer who is the subject of the recall petition are intended solely for the information of the voters. (Elections Code section 11023(c)).

If you have any questions, please call me (X3815) or Mark Morodomi (X6101).

For your information, I have pasted Elections Code sections 11023 and 11024 below.

11023. Recalled officer may file an answer.

(a) Within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, the officer sought to be recalled may file with the elections official, or in the case of a state officer, the Secretary of State, an answer, in not more than 200 words, to the statement of the proponents.

(b) If an answer is filed, the officer shall, within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, also serve a copy of it, by personal delivery or by certified mail on one of the proponents named in the notice of intention.

(c) The answer shall be signed and shall be accompanied by the printed name and business or residence address of the officer sought to be recalled.

11024. Statement and answer for voter information.

The statement and answer are intended solely for the information of the voters. No insufficiency in form or substance thereof shall affect the validity of the election proceedings.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

The demonstration and encampment have been going on for weeks. There were many, many chances, especially early on, to engage in peaceful dialog with citizens of the U.S. and residents of East Bay. I am ashamed of the precipitous action towards violence with little regard for the possibility of non-violent discussion. These are not folks from out of town. These are people who live here, invest in Oakland and the East Bay area. These are the people that contribute to the vibrant culture of Oakland. And now, they are bleeding, jailed, in pain, and in fear for their safety. This is not how I imagine a city would treat its own residents. Its deeply, deeply heartbreaking.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

were it not for your job and your destiny, you could have been easily on the streets protesting also.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

What do you think you accomplished? You think you're going to stop this movement by scaring, hurting, or killing off the people who elected you or didn't elect you but your neighbors, community members, children of people you know, aged, handicapped, the people who shop in the markets you shop in? I don't think so.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

So well said, Mike. I have been a life long Democrat, and I am disgusted. Our eyes are finally opening to the real corporatocracy we live in. I just returned about an hour ago from the demonstration. The curtain is being pulled away for all of us to see the real "Wizard of Oz". I am ashamed of the actions of the OPD, and the other gestapo/SS officers. I told them so this morning. A few of them looked down as I asked them how they could sleep at night having attacked, terrorized and betrayed their brothers and sisters. I heard that a couple days ago the Albany NY police refused to obey the governor when he ordered them to attack Occupy Albany. I agree, the mayor is making excuses, like the dishonest politician she has turned out to be. These people are VERY peaceful. I'm encouraging every one to move their money out of the big banks to credit unions or community banks by Nov. 5th. For example, I'm a member of Pacific Services Credit Union. Please consider doing this. It is another way we can help support this amazing, democratic movement! Dawn on Park Boulevard Way

The complaints about harassment, violence and sanitation at Occupy Oakland were exaggerated by media and city officials, who used them as excuses to shut down the protests. Significantly, the complaints were taken seriously by the protestors, who continuously created and fine-tuned measures to resolve them.

Occupy is not just a useless afternoon's march behind a couple of slogans. It's an attempt to create a way of protesting that isn't easily ignored or co-opted by the very system they're protesting against. A large majority of us-left, right and center-are disheartened and dismayed at how quickly our politicians succumb to lobbyists' money, how readily they abandon the promises we believed in, how thoroughly they compromise away our interests in favor of corporations and the rich. So here comes an honest, exciting, creative attempt to find a way out, and it gets evicted.

I just sent an email complaining to the Mayor before I saw this in my email. I said that even though I don't live in Oakland, I live in this country and I think it is the responsibility of the Mayor that the police overreacted and she is to blame! I said it's so sad that we cheer for other countries when they stand up to their repressive governments, but when we do it in America, our leaders act like middle east dictators. And, I'm 72 years old and not some nut job. I'm one of the 99%!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I am outraged by the behavior of the police toward the peaceful protesters of Occupy Oakland, who were awakened in the pre-dawn hours of Oct 25. How dare the city of Oakland, in the guise of its police force, brutalize its citizens for exercising their Constitutional rights of freedom of speech and assembly? Do you really think such actions do anything but build support for the OWS movement? The movement grows every day and your actions prove their point: that the police are employed to protect a vilified political and corporate elite that is afraid of what is happening in our nation's streets.

Tonight I took part in tihe General Assembly at OWS in NY and we voted to send $20,000 and 100 tents to support the brave people of Occupy Oakland. I repeat: This movement is not going away!

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

You too were once part of that 99% Don't forget it!

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: "Peaceful" Clearing of Occupy Oakland Protesters

Mayor Quan,

I'm sure you've been bombarded with emails from every corner of the globe since Occupy Oakland has blown up on you. I, for one, got your email address from a friend on Facebook who also posted the following video:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OZLyUK0t0vQ&feature=share

This doesn't look too peaceful to me. I just attended a fund raiser in memory of a friend who was killed when police hit her with a "non-lethal" projectile. To see a similar incident occur seven years later is really sickening. And to make matters worse, not only do we have a civilian on the ground bleeding, but when bystanders rush in to help the man, your police decided it was appropriate to throw a flash grenade into the group of Samaritans.

To be fair, I was not in Oakland for this event. I do not pretend to know the full circumstance of the incident. But I do know one thing: this does not look like a "generally peaceful resolution." To the outside world this looks like a crackdown. Tear gas and batons do not a peaceful situation make. You've been on the other side of protests; I would hope you would understand.

I am not a resident of the bay area, or even California for that matter. But as an American, and as a Democrat, I implore you to reign in the police to prevent further violence, which is the inevitable result of such confrontation. Such tactics were wrong in Ben Ali's Tunisia. They were wrong in Mubarak's Egypt. They were wrong in Gadhafi's Libya. They are wrong in al-Assad's Syrian, and I hope to God they are still wrong in Oakland, California. Stand with the people Mayor Quan; they are angry for a reason.

I lived in oakland as a child and my oldest child was born there- I am ashamed and outraged at how the city and mayor are treating oaklands citizens for voicing their concerns about this country in the hopes of affecting change that we, the people, can get behind and believe in. Have you lost your minds? These are your people you are shooting tear gas and rubber bullets at. These are our children, neighbors and grandparents even. This is not how american citizens are supposed to be treated in this country for exersizing there first amendment rights. Just remember that in your job you work for the people and shooting them with rubber bullets does not seem to be serving, nor should you think it will help you get re-elected anytime soon

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Not for the protests but there is no excuse for this brutality. These are innocent people who are doing NOTHING wrong. I dont care WHAT they are protesting about, be it wallstreet and banks, to Pro life, THEY HAVE A RIGHT AS LONG AS THEY ARE PEACEFUL! and they are. Even if you agree or disagree THEY DONT DESERVE WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THEM!!! and when our vets get BRUTALIZED once home, enough is enough. There is no honor in what was done to our people. I grew up in a military family, uncles fought in WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Gulf war and one was special forces, and the one thing I was raised with is Country over everything. I live by this, but what I saw, what my friends and family members experienced disgusted me. this is not what my family members, my friends, and fellow Americans DIED for. my respect for the mayor of Oakland and the police of Oakland is now forever lost.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. - Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan, the reaction of Oakland policy was inconsistent with your commitment to social justice and democratic process. Please end the policy assaults.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Veronica Solano

My daughter works at the plaza. She said that the Occupy W.S. protestors were no problem. Let your citizenry be heard. The average citizen has no voice in the politics of this corporate U.S. As a mayor you should help your citizens not let them suffer violence at your hands. Please change your position. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

There is no Democracy without the expression and voices of EVERYONE, especially with a corrupt system that is falling apart and dismantling our middle class system. When people are allowed to protest, it is because they live in a democracy. Take that away or vilify the protesters and you no longer support one of the human rights that set us apart and is constitutionally there to protect the democratic process. I support an American Democracy. I believe in that right to voice oneself, especially when the corruption is growing and more transparent to more of Americans than ever before. It is blatant and permitted by the very institutions that financially support them

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary. THERE WERE NO ATTEMPTS TO ROB A BANK, as your memo issued today suggested.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Issue an apology to Last night, Scott Olsen, a Marine who served two tours in Iraq. He was struck in the head by a "nonlethal" projectile fired by the police. The round fractured his skull, leaving him in critical condition.
- Direct Oakland Police and all other Police jurisdictions collaborating with Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Ludlum

There has been a lot of passion expressed in the Occupy Oakland discussions on our list. I know that it can be very difficult to be polite to someone who's views disagree strongly with yours.

Yet it is precisely when such controversy arises that we need to remember who you are talking to. People in this group are your neighbors. They don't like reading insulting words any more than you do.

It is relatively easy to be polite when we are talking about recommendations or local projects. It is harder but even more vital that we exercise restraint when talking about subjects where feelings run high.

We may not always agree with what is said but at least we can be civil to each other.

This group is primarily self-moderated; messages from most members are posted directly to the group, without waiting to be reviewed. It is all too easy to dash off a rapid reply without really thinking about how your words will be received. So please, take a moment to think before you hit the send key.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

It is an absolute disgrace the way your city is treating the protesters and the totally unnecessary and cowardly violence that has been used against the OCCUPYOAKLAND. Your city should be ashamed of their actions. And people around the country and around the world are going to want to know what you plan on doing about it.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

The injury of Iraq Veteran Scott Olson with "less-than-lethal" force has brought international negative attention to these egregious acts of state violence. I can only hope that it will only take 1 serious injury, and certainly no deaths at the hands of police, for you to decide to reign in your actions.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I saw you speak at Ford's Just City event, and I was impressed with your dedication to the city of Oakland. But this action does not fit.
The Occupy protests are the manifestation of a movement toward a just city--and police repression is exactly the kind of tactics that prevent the kind of change needed to truly bring opportunity to all. It is not your Chinese investors who will make Oakland and the rest of the country communities of opportunity. It is the 99 percent.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. Dear Jean,

We have our own occupy movement an hour north in Santa Rosa, but if you keep up the repression and violence against Occupy Oakland participants, folks will probably come to Oakland en masse and create problems you can't solve with police bullying. Wise up and lay off the peaceful protesters.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Down at City Hall tonight. It's a peaceful demonstration of around 2,000 people. Quite a mix of people, beatniks, professionals, parents with kids, artists, homeless. People of Oakland.

Tonight's message seems to be as one sign says, "Protesting Wall Street. Not Rioting in the Streets." The speakers are asking the Mayor and the Chief to come talk to them.

No police presence so far. Just massive amounts of media.

You are an example of the worst kind of mayor. You gave orders for your people who were protesting peacefully, trying to get a message to you and your kind, to be shot, gassed, beaten, and treated like criminals. IT IS NOT A CRIME TO PROTEST, BUT IT IS A CRIME TO SELL OUT YOUR FELLOW HUMANS. You will pay dearly for this. Karma is always right on target. Resign and spare yourself the misery and backlash of the poor decisions you have made. You told police to attack peaceful protestors, sparing no woman, veteran, child, teacher, student...for shame! Shame on you! you have ruined your pathetic career and your image. You are nothing but a pawn for brutalistic, sadistic, wealthy pigs. How does it feel to have hurt and harmed so many who tried peacefully to change society for the better, who did nothing malicious to you or the community?

Sleep well.

Dear Mayor Quan,
First, thank you for all you do for the city of Oakland. Your job is an incredibly hard one--one I could probably never do myself. I am glad there are people with your talents and endurance to take it on.
As you're probably hearing by now, some of us are very frustrated with your having called recent police brutality "peaceful eviction" when it's clear from the news that some violence was involved. I bet some policemen did act genuinely peaceful. But some of them did not and hurt others. It's false of you to claim the event as peaceful. If you could recognize the truth of what happened and call for an investigation, it would give people a sense of honesty and justice.

Please use your power and influence for honesty and justice. Think of how you'll feel about this when you're older, like 90 years old. How will you wish you had acted when you think back to this time?

Thanks,
Kelly

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Linda Winkler

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

We are the 99% and We Will Not go away no matter what you throw at us. We will remain until change occurs...and not until.

We are the 99%, we do not forget, we do not forgive, we're mad as hell and we're not going to take it anymore.

Expect Us.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bettles

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Jean,

You may be Chinese, but Oakland ain't Tianamen Square. You NEED to fire the police responsible and then resign in disgrace. If you had any self respect, you'd commit seppuku, but I suppose that's a Japanese thing.

Shame on you. You should all be put on trial and hanged.

Shame.

We have the freedom of speech and the freedom to assemble. These civil liberties were protected and given to us in the Constitution. Why should an individual say we have no right to assemble. If the people of Oakland voted the Mayor to be their mayor they have the right to vote impeach them out of office by stating tyranny and unjust to the citizens of Oakland. In Sacramento, I went to the meeting October 18, 2011 and heard the many, heard the 99%. As one of the advocates have said, "This is a DEMOCRACY! We voted for you, council members, your seats. We can always take your seats back!" POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan:

I have been supporting Occupy Austin, so I was delighted when I was told that you had marched with Occupy Oakland.

What happened? What caused you to change from support of the peaceful protest to unloosing the out-of-control thugs who split the skull of a peaceful Veterans for Peace demonstrator?

Too bad you weren't there with Occupy Oakland when the rioting thugs attacked the peaceful demonstrators. Then, you might be lying in the hospital in "critical but stable condition" and Scott Olsen could still be peacefully redressing his grievances as is his right under the Constitution, free of unconstitutional "permits" or unlawful police orders and violence.

You have failed the citizens of Oakland and the rest of the United States. You need to resign.

And, take Police Commissioner Jordan with you, please.

Sincerely,

Terry Adcock

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

And remember, you too, most likely, are part of the 99%.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I've seen videos, photos, and testimony from the event. How can anyone say that this wasn't brutal and over the top? The mayor commended the police chief for '...a generally peaceful resolution to a situation that deteriorated and concerned [the] community.' This is wrong, and needs to be addressed. In no way was the eviction peaceful. Also, when did it deteriorate a community to stand up against a system that more or less has been oppressing them for years?

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed the Oakland city police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. Their use of heavy riot gear, tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

The videos I have seen on the web convince me your police officers meant to injure (and possibly maim) as many of the protesters as possible by aiming their gas canisters and flash grenades directly into groups of people, including those who gathered to help an injured Iraq war veteran after he was hit in the head by one of those tear gas cannisters. This was quite obviously a "police riot" rather like the Chicago police riot in Grant Park in 1968. Oakland does not need the reputation Mayor Daley's Chicago earned after their 1968 police riot.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protesters.
Your violent approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protesters.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Alli Starr

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan

This nation and the entire world have watched the brutality of the Oakland police in its attempt to chill the First Amendment right of peaceable assembly, as exercised by the Occupy participants.

Who would be an enemy of democracy in this way?

You have brought immense shame to your city. If you believe that you can fight against democracy and retain elected office I am sure that you are wrong.

Unless you act to reverse this position of brutality against democracy, I wish you a speedy departure from the mayoralty. I wish the police force a speedy investigation of its actions, all of which are captured on film, sufficient for any jury to convict wrongdoers.

This nation is a beacon of democracy - you cannot extinguish this light.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

the actions against the occupy oakland protesters were shameful! solidarity and (un)occupy everywhere!

Down at City Hall tonight. It's a peaceful demonstration of around 2,000 people. Quite a mix of people, beatniks, professionals, parents with kids, artists, homeless. People of Oakland.

Tonight's message seems to be as one sign says, "Protesting Wall Street. Not Rioting in the Streets." The speakers are asking the Mayor and the Chief to come talk to them.

No police presence so far. Just massive amounts of media.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

The history of the lethal use of rubber bullets is all too clear in Northern Ireland. Please cease and desist the use of rubber bullets.

Peaceful protest has changed this country before. We need peaceful protest to change this country now.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Peaceful assembly and protest against Wall Street wheeler-dealers and Big Banks that are given public money and lots of it--while government services at every level are cut due to a 'bad economy'--is the appropriate and lawful response by this country's citizens.
The use of heavy-handed tactics by police drawn from 17 cities against peaceful camping protesters in Oakland's Ogawa Plaza looks like the response of a police state--and needs to be reversed before we become just that.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I saw this video where an Oakland Police officer throws a flash grenade at a group of people trying to help a wounded citizen. It doesn't matter what the citizen did to deserve the first injury, he is clearly DOWN and you still attacked him:
http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=OZLyUK0t0vQ

As a citizen of America I demand an explanation. Please contact me with one.

If I lived in Oakland I would be pissed off because my tax dollars were now going to go to settle the lawsuits that will be going against you for this mass violence against innocent (your innocent when your wounded on the ground in a coma) citizens. And as a citizen of the USA I am angry that my federal tax dollars will go to settle the suit against you for this.

I DEMAND AN EXPLANATION.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.
- Resign immediately for your role in the mass violation of the First Amendment.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Quan: be on the side of the People. Be on the side of Justice. Do not allow police to harm the peaceful protestors who are exercising their Free Speech rights. You should investigate the police behavior and you should meet with Occupy Oakland and find a way to support them.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

This is horrifying. Our country is based on freedom of speech and the right to peacefully gather with others to express our ideas, concerns, etc. regarding our governance. These people have done nothing wrong and, in fact, are great Americans for standing up to be counted when it really matters. Stop the violence and allow democracy to function as was intended by our forefathers/mothers.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

THE OAKLAND POLICE HAVE SHOWN THEIR CONTEMPT FOR THE PEOPLE WHO CAME TO PROTEST PEACEFULLY AND HAVE BEEN MET WITH RIOT GAS, BEAN BAG SHOTS, RUBBER BULLETS, AND HAVE NOT SHOWN ANY RESPECT FOR THE PEOPLE. THEY SHOULD KNOW THAT THE PATIENTS OF THESE PEOPLE IS WEARING THIN, AND VIOLENCE MAY WELL BE MET WITH DEADLY FORCE FROM THE PEOPLE! ESPECIALLY AFTER PUTTING A TWO TIME IRAQI WAR VETERAN IN CRITICAL CONDITION AFTER SHOOTING HIM IN THE HEAD FROM A DISTANCE OF LESS THAN 10 FEET WITH A GAS CANISTER, LEAVING HIM WITH A DOUBLE SKULL FRACTURE AND UNCONCIOUS ON A VENTILATOR TO DIE. In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I really wish I could be closer to the Bay Area to make my voice be heard! I'm with you in spirit brothers and sisters!!

Status of the Plaza/Downtown Demonstrations
October 26, 2011—as of 8:45 p.m.

Situational updates since last media briefing:

- Frank Ogawa Plaza was opened for public use at 4:30pm, in order to fully restore the area for public use, the grass area was fenced off.
- The area was posted with the City's commitment to facilitate peaceful assemblies and protest.
- A peaceful march occurred from Oakland Technical High School to the plaza. The march occurred without incident and there was no need for police response. (Thank those people for observing the City Administrator's request for calm
- Upon opening, the plaza was occupied almost immediately by protestors. From the initial 200 at 5pm, the gathering grew to approximately 700 by 7:00pm.
- At 6:30pm, individuals within the plaza protest made attempts to take down a portion of the fence. This attempt was stopped by opposing citizens within the crowd. The fence remained.
- By 6:45pm, we began to receive reports of individuals commuting into the plaza area equipped with gas masks and improvised or otherwise unconventional weapons.
- At 7:15pm, the fence surrounding Frank Ogawa Plaza was fully disassembled. The crowd size is unchanged (approximately 700) and thus far there have been no reports of vandalism, violence, or otherwise unlawful activity.
- Protesters have requested a meeting with Mayor Quan and Chief Jordan; the request is being considered.

- Next media briefing: 9:00 pm at EOC Media Rooms

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Susan Silber

Many reasons I am disgusted and alarmed by the freedom the Police have to "Break the Law" and get away with it. Basically they commit murder and it is covered up. Also the preventing of a peaceful protest is against The Constitution . I feel like the Constitution needs to be in Neon Lights

Dear Mayor Quan,

You issued a statement commending the police for their "peaceful" eviction of Occupy Oakland demonstrators. I find it extremely hard to believe that it was a peaceful eviction when, at this very moment, a 24 year old Iraq veteran is in the hospital in critical condition from having his skull fractured by a police projectile. Your orders to the police to use full riot gear and armed weaponry against a peaceful protest just demonstrates how unfit you are for the position of mayor. I, and others with me, respectfully request that you resign your position and allow someone with a more accurate definition of peace to take your place.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Laura Knox

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

The level of violence in the police action was unnecessary and unacceptable. A veteran of 2 tours in Iraq, who fought to defend our right of peaceable assembly, is now in the hospital. Shameful police conduct. Shameful.

I'm shocked and disgusted by the behavior of the Oakland Police Dept, and by association that of Mayor Quan, and I hope that this petition will reach them, along with what will surely be countless other efforts to bring some measure of sense, something resembling common decency, back to the streets of Oakland.
